

You are invited to a FREE Zoom Community Conversation on employer understanding of “neurodiversity” as it applies to your commitment to DEI – Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

The virtual meeting will be moderated by Good Friend, Inc. (GFI) co-founders Chelsea Budde and Denise Schamens. GFI board director and autistic advocate Sarah Russell will also provide invaluable perspective.

Topics include:

- The concept of neurodiversity.
- Why hiring autistic workers is a sound business practice.
- How Good Friend, Inc. can help companies be inclusive of adults on the autism spectrum.

If your company would like to enhance its DEI focus, join us for an insightful time of learning and sharing. Register to reserve your spot for this timely discussion.

Reasons to join:

- Learn best practices for recruiting and onboarding autistic talent
- Dynamic roundtable discussion after the presentation
- Mastermind Sarah R.’s experience as #ActuallyAutistic

Date and Time:

- Monday, November 8th – 5:00 to 5:45 PM
- Monday, November 22nd – 5:00 to 5:45 PM

Good Friend, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) public charity dedicated to creating autism awareness, teaching acceptance of differences, and fostering empathy for individuals on the autism spectrum since 2007.

1025 S. Moorland Rd., Ste. 600 | Brookfield, WI 53005 | info@goodfriendinc.com | 262-444-7510

goodfriendinc.com | Get social @GoodFriendInc

